

Examples of Volunteers-In-Parks Mission Statements

Golden Gate National Recreation Area

The Mission of the volunteer program at GGNRA is to involve individuals and groups in the preservation and enhancement of the park's resources in an atmosphere of respect and cooperation. The program will provide training for growth in job performance while fostering commitment to National Park Service goals and recognizing the contributions of all park volunteers.

Carlsbad Caverns National Park

Mission: Achieving park goals through mutually beneficial volunteer experiences.